ESTABLISHMENT OF THE UNIT TRUST OF INDIA AND THE INITIAL CAPITAL THEREOF

Establishment and corporation of Unit Trust of India.

3. (1) The Central Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, establish a Corporation by the name of the Unit Trust of India which shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power, subject to the provisions of this Act, to acquire, hold or dispose of property and to contract, and may, by the said name, sue or be sued.

(2) The head office of the Trust shall be at Bombay or at such other place as the Reserve Bank may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

(3) The Trust may establish local offices, branches or agencies at any places in or outside India.

Initial capital of Trust.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the initial capital of the Trust shall be five crores of rupees divided in the form of certificates each of which shall be of such face value as may be prescribed and contributed in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) Before such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf—

(a) the Reserve Bank shall contribute two and a half crores of rupees;

(b) the Life Insurance Corporation shall contribute seventy-five lakhs of rupees;

(c) the State Bank and the subsidiary banks shall contribute seventy-five lakhs of rupees, the amount which the State Bank and each subsidiary bank shall contribute being determined by the State Bank;

(d) other institutions, namely, scheduled banks other than those referred to in clause (c) and such classes of financial institutions as may be notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette in this behalf may contribute one crore of rupees.

(3) If the aggregate of the contributions made by the institutions referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (2) exceeds one crore of rupees, the Board shall refund the excess amount to such institutions, so however, that the amount to be refunded to each such institution bears, as far as possible, the same proportion to the contribution made by it as the excess amount bears to the aggregate of the contributions made by such institutions.

(4) If the aggregate of the contributions made by the institutions referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (2) is less than one crore of rupees, the Reserve Bank shall contribute the deficiency within thirty days of the date specified under sub-section (2):

Provided that the Reserve Bank may, thereafter, transfer the whole or any part of its contribution under this sub-section to any institution referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (2).

(5) If at any time the Board is of opinion that the amount of the initial capital is in excess of the requirements of the Trust, it may refund the whole or any part of such capital to the contributing institutions: *

Provided that where only a part is so refunded the amount to be refunded to each such institution shall bear, as far as possible, the same proportion to the contribution made by it as such part bears to the initial capital:

Provided further that for the purpose of any refund, the value of the initial capital shall be determined by the Board on such basis as the Central Government may specify in this behalf, regard being had to the real or exchangeable value thereof.

5. The Board shall maintain in such manner as may be prescribed a register containing the names of the contributing institutions, the amount contributed by each such institution and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

Maintenance of register of contributors.

6. (1) As soon as may be after the contribution has been made by any contributing institution under section 4, the Board shall issue to such contributing institution a contribution certificate or contribution certificates in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

(c) the manner in which payment may be made for purchasing a unit from the Trust;

(d) the issue of unit certificates and the form and manner in which such certificates may be issued;

(e) the issue of duplicate of any unit certificate in the event of loss or destruction of the original and the fee on the payment of which such duplicate may be issued;

(f) the procedure for determining the value at which the units may be sold or purchased, from time to time, by the Trust;

(g) the recognition of persons as unit holders;

(h) the persons to whom, the time at which and the manner in which any payments in respect of a unit shall be made by the Trust;

(i) the preparation and maintenance of a register, if any, of unit holders;

(j) the conditions, if any, subject to which a unit holder may transfer the unit;

(k) any other matter which the Trust may consider to be necessary or proper for the effective implementation of the scheme.

(3) The Board may, from time to time, add to or otherwise amend the scheme made under sub-section (1).

(4) The scheme made under sub-section (1) and every amendment thereof under sub-section (3) shall be notified in the Official Gazette.

CHAPTER V

ALLOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF INCOME

Allocation of income, interest and other expenses.

22. (1) The total gross income of the Trust in any year shall be allocated to the initial capital and the unit capital in the same proportion as the former bears to the latter at the end of that year.

(2) The interest payable for any year for any borrowings made by the Trust and the total amount of other expenses incurred by the Trust in that year shall be allocated and charged to the initial capital and the unit capital in the same proportion as is referred to in sub-section (1):

Provided that if the amount of expenses other than interest allocated to the unit capital is more than five per cent. of the gross income allocated to the unit capital in that year, only an amount equal to such five per cent. shall be charged to the unit capital and the rest of the total amount of expenses other than interest shall be charged to the initial capital.

Distribution of income.

23. (1) The gross income allocated to the initial capital in any year reduced by the interest and the amount of other expenses charged for that year to the initial capital may be distributed in the prescribed manner among the contributing institutions in proportion to their contributions to the initial capital.

(2) The gross income allocated to the unit capital in any year reduced by the interest and the amount of other expenses charged for that year to the unit capital may, but not less than ninety per cent. of the gross income so reduced shall, be distributed to the unit holders in respect of that year.

Distribution of income after refund of initial capital.

24. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 22 or section 23, where the whole of the initial capital has been refunded to the contributing institutions, the gross income in any year reduced by the interest payable for that year for any borrowings made by the Trust and the total amount of other expenses incurred by the Trust in that year may, but not less than ninety per cent. of the gross income so reduced shall, be distributed to the unit holders in respect of that year.

Definition of year.

25. In this Chapter "year" means the period in respect of which the books and accounts of the Trust are balanced and closed under sub-section (2) of section 26.

CHAPTER VI

ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

26. (1) The balance-sheet and accounts of the Trust shall be prepared and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

Preparation of balance-sheet, etc., of Trust.

(2) The Board shall cause the books and accounts of the Trust to be balanced and closed each year as on such date as may be prescribed.

1 of 1956.

27. (1) The affairs of the Trust shall be audited by an auditor duly qualified to act as an auditor under sub-section (1) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, who shall be appointed by the Trust and shall receive such remuneration as the Trust may fix.

(2) The auditor shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet of the Trust and it shall be his duty to examine it together with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto and he shall have a list delivered to him of all books kept by the Trust and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts, vouchers and other documents of the Trust.

(3) The auditor may, in relation to such accounts, examine any trustee or any officer or other employee of the Trust and shall be entitled to require from the Board or officers or other employees of the Trust such information and explanation as he may think necessary for the performance of his duties.

(4) The auditor shall make a report to the Trust upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts examined by him and in every such report he shall state whether in his opinion the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Trust and in case he had called for any information or explanation from the Board or any officer or other employee of the Trust, whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory.

28. The Trust shall furnish to each of the contributing institutions within four months from the date on which its accounts are balanced and closed in respect of any year a copy of the balance-sheet and accounts together with a copy of the auditor's report and shall publish the same in the Official Gazette.

29. The Trust shall furnish, from time to time, to the Reserve Bank such information as the Reserve Bank may require.

Furnishing of information to Reserve Bank.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

Power of Reserve Bank to give directions.

30. In the discharge of its functions under this Act, the Trust shall be guided by such directions in matters of policy involving public interest as the Reserve Bank may give to it in writing, and if any question arises whether the direction relates to a matter of policy involving public interest, the decision of the Reserve Bank thereon shall be final.

Staff of Trust

31. (1) The Trust may appoint such number of officers and other employees as it considers necessary or desirable for the efficient performance of its functions and determine the terms and conditions of their appointment and service.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), it shall be lawful for the Trust to utilise, and for the Reserve Bank to make available, the services of such staff of the Reserve Bank on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Trust and the Reserve Bank.

Incometax and other taxes

32. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Income-tax Act, 1961, the Super Profits Tax Act, 1963, or in any other enactment for the time being in force relating to income-tax, super-tax or super profits tax, or any other tax on income, profits or gains—

13 of 1961
14 of 1963

(a) the Trust shall not be liable to pay income-tax, super-tax, super profits tax or any other tax in respect of any income, profits or gains derived by it from any source;

(b) where the income received by a unit holder, being an individual, from the Trust in respect of units does not exceed one thousand rupees, such income, and where such income exceeds one thousand rupees, a sum of one thousand rupees, shall be excluded in computing the total income of the unit holder for purposes of income-tax and in the case of any such unit holder who would not be liable to super-tax but for the inclusion of such income in his total income, also for purposes of super-tax; and

(c) where a contributing institution is liable to be assessed to super profits tax under the Super Profits Tax Act, 1963, in respect of its own income, profits or gains and receives any sum from the Trust under this Act in respect of its contribution to the initial capital, such sum as reduced by the amount of any income-tax and super-tax payable in respect thereof shall be excluded from the total income of the said institution in computing its chargeable profits for the purposes of super profits tax

43 of 1961 (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 193 or section 194 of the Income-tax Act, 1961—

(a) no deduction of income-tax or super-tax shall be made on any interest or dividend payable to the Trust in respect of any securities or shares owned by it or in which it has full beneficial interest; and

(b) no deduction of income-tax shall be made by the Trust from the income distributed by it to a unit holder being an individual.

43 of 1961 (3) Subject to the foregoing sub-sections, for the purposes of the Income-tax Act, 1961,—

(a) any distribution of income received by a unit holder from the Trust shall be deemed to be his income by way of dividends; and

(b) the Trust shall be deemed to be a company.

33. The Bankers' Books Evidence Act, 1891 shall apply in relation to the Trust as if it were a bank as defined in section 2 of the said Act.

Act 18 of 1891 to apply in relation to Trust

34 Every trustee, auditor, officer or other employee of the Trust or any employee of the Reserve Bank whose services are utilised by the Trust under section 31 shall, before entering upon his duties, make a declaration of fidelity and secrecy in the form set out in the First Schedule to this Act.

Declaration of fidelity and secrecy

35. (1) No act or proceeding of the Board or of any committee of the Trust shall be questioned on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution of, the Board or committee.

Defects in appointments not to invalidate acts, etc

(2) No act done by any person acting in good faith as a trustee shall be deemed to be invalid merely on the ground that he was disqualified to be a trustee or that there was any other defect in his appointment.

36. (1) Every trustee shall be indemnified by the Trust against all losses and expenses incurred by him in, or in relation to, the discharge of his duties except such as are caused by his own wilful act or default.

Indemnity of trustees

(2) A trustee of the Board shall not be responsible for any other trustee, or for any officer or other employee of the Trust, or for any loss or expenses resulting to the Trust, from the insufficiency or deficiency of value of or title to any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Trust or the insolvency or wrongful act of any debtor or any person under obligation to the Trust or anything done in good faith in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto.

Protection of action taken under this Act.

37. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Trust or the Reserve Bank or any trustee or any officer or other employee of the Trust or the Reserve Bank or any other person authorised by the Trust to discharge any functions under this Act for any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act.

Delegation of powers.

38. The Board may, by general or special order, delegate to any officer of the Trust, subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as may be specified in the order, such of its powers and duties under this Act as it may deem necessary.

No trust to be taken

39. (1) No notice of a trust, express, implied or constructive, shall be receivable by the Trust.

(2) The amount standing to the credit of a contributing institution shall not be liable to attachment under any decree or order of any court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the contributing institution.

Repayment of contribution in case of winding up of contributing institution.

40. (1) In the event of a contributing institution referred to in clause (d) of sub-section (2) of section 4 being wound up, the Trust shall, on a demand in that behalf made by the authority in charge of the winding up, pay to such authority an amount equivalent to the value of the contribution to the initial capital made by that institution.

Institution.

(2) The value of the contribution shall be determined by the Board on such basis as the Central Government may specify, regard being had to the real or exchangeable value of such contribution.

Power of Central Government to reconstitute Board.

41. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 10 or section 11, where the whole of the initial capital has been refunded to the contributing institutions, the Central Government may, after consultation with the Reserve Bank, by order, provide for the reconstitution of the Board.

(2) An order made under sub-section (1) may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the number of trustees that will constitute the Board;
- (b) the manner in which they shall be chosen;
- (c) their term of office;
- (d) filling of casual vacancies;

(e) such incidental, consequential and supplementary matters as may be necessary to give effect to the order including the reconstitution of the executive committee or other committees.

(3) Every order made under this section shall be published in the Official Gazette and a copy thereof shall be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after it is made.

42. (1) The Trust shall not be placed in liquidation save by order of the Central Government and in such manner as it may direct. Liquidation of Trust.

(2) In making such order, the Central Government shall, if the initial capital has not been wholly refunded, direct, among other things, that—

(i) the value of the net assets of the Trust after paying off all its liabilities, other than those in respect of the initial capital and the unit capital shall be divided into two parts in the same proportion as the aggregate face value of all the units immediately prior to the date on which the Trust is placed in liquidation bears to the initial capital as on that date; and

(ii) the first part shall be distributed among the contributing institutions in proportion to their respective contributions to the initial capital as on that date and the second part shall be distributed among the unit holders in proportion to the face value of the units held by them as on that date.

43. (1) The Board may, with the previous approval of the Reserve Bank, make regulations not inconsistent with this Act to provide for all matters for which provision is necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act. Regulations.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for—

(a) the form and manner of maintenance of the register of contributing institutions and the particulars to be contained therein;
